

Dear Neighbors,

Juliana Lee is the ultimate professional. A real estate agent who knows the local market like the back of her hand and can navigate the unexpected hazards of real estate negotiations better than any other agent we have met in our 35 years on the Mid-peninsula. She is also a superb marketer, and possesses an uncanny talent for reading the true wants and desires of both her clients and her adversaries. The next time we decide to sell or buy property we will definitely want her on our side.
