

The spacious kitchen encourages group participation in meal preparation. Plentiful easy to clean counter space and plentiful cabinet space beckon everyone to take part.

The breakfast area in the kitchen provides a great place for an informal gathering while the cooks prepare meals or snacks. The breakfast bar provides an alternative space to enjoy casually sharing food.

Side-by-side built-in refrigerator, gas cooktop, double built-in ovens.

The formal living room, the family room, and the master bedroom all have beautiful vaulted, stained wood, open beam ceilings.

Both the living room and the family room provide a superb balance between being open and providing a little separation.

The formal dining room is adjacent to the kitchen. Both a doorway and a pass-through in the built-in china cabinet connect the dining room to the kitchen.
