

City of Saratoga, CA

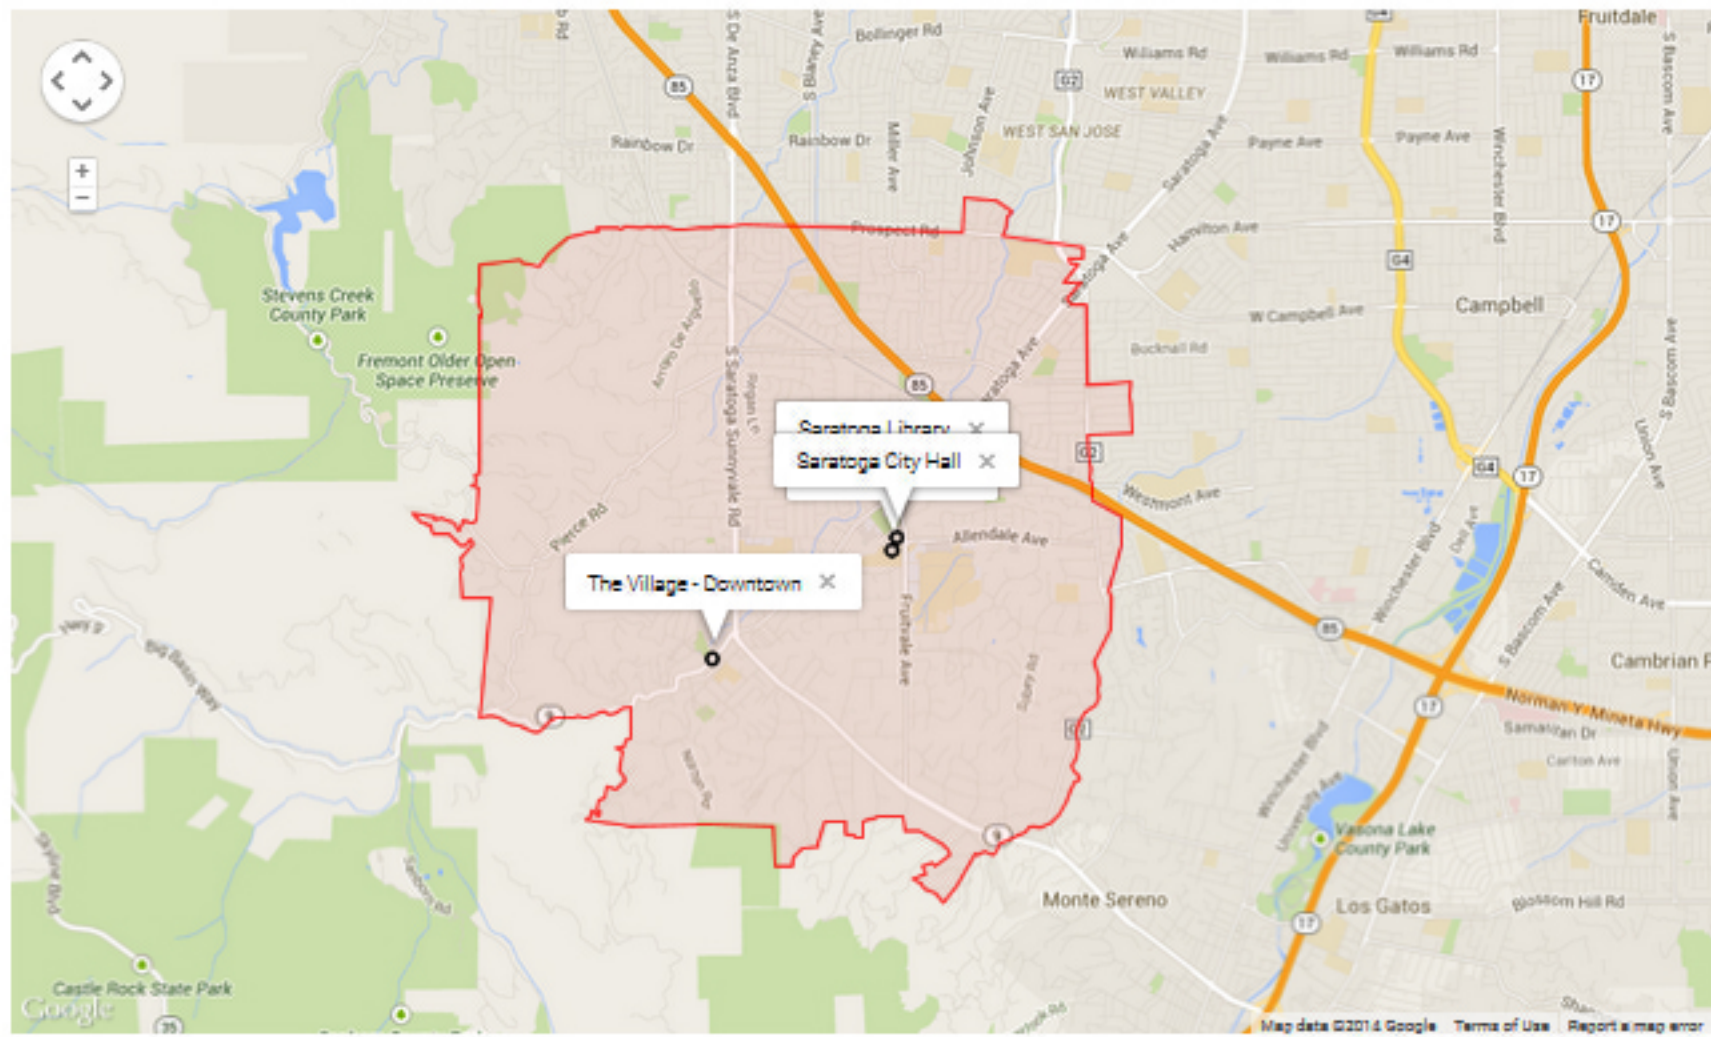

Saratoga is an attractive residential community which values its small town atmosphere. Located at the foot of the Santa Cruz Mountains on the western edge of Silicon Valley it has been rated as a top-earning town, one of the most expensive suburbs, and one of the 20 most-educated small towns.

The public schools in Saratoga are very highly rated, all having API scores over 900.

The 2010 census gives Saratoga's population as 29,926.

Excellent job opportunities, excellent schools, great weather all attract people to the city making it one of the most expensive cities in the United States.

City Of Saratoga, CA - Map

City of Saratoga, CA - Home Values

Extensive graphs of Saratoga home values for both single family homes and condos can be viewed at my Saratoga Home Values web page. Recent Saratoga home sales can be viewed at my Saratoga Just Sold web page. Four key values: price, price per sq ft, size, and lot size, for Saratoga single family houses are shown in the tabbed windows below.

