

The left side of the ground floor has an exquisite open living area, dining area, and kitchen. Stairs adjacent to the living area lead up to a master bedroom and two other bedrooms.

The master bedroom features a cathedral ceiling, wood floor, walk-in closet, and windows on two sides.

Both of the other bedrooms feature wood floors, ample sized closets, and windows on two sides. One has a vaulted ceiling the other a coved ceiling.

The right side of the ground floor features a large combined dining and sitting area. Adjacent to it are a refreshment/snack preparation room, and a den.

Down a short hallway are two bedrooms.

This flexible floor plan allows plenty of space for a large family or the right side provides an ideal space for extended family members or even out of area guests staying to visit you.

This home can meet changing needs for many years.
