

760 Arastradero Rd, Palo Alto

This spacious home is designed for flexibility and low yard maintenance. An open living room, large breakfast area, and kitchen can form the public area for a family while the dining area, sitting area, and refreshment area could form the public area for extended family members or visiting out of area guests.

Two downstairs bedrooms are down a short hallway behind the sitting area. The upstairs master bedroom and two other bedrooms are reached by stairs adjacent to the living room. A stucco wall provides backyard privacy.
