There is room to spare in this expansive kitchen that includes dual cooktops, tile back splash, wood flooring & brown stained wood cabinets.

After meals, during your down time or if you enjoy some solitude, be sure to indulge in your very own reading room and miniature library. Large windows run alongside the room & invite a plentiful amount of natural lighting throughout & a view of the side yard.

The luxurious master suite is complete with its own en-suite bath, well maintained wood flooring & a large walk in closet. The en-suite bath incorporates stone counter tops, stained wood cabinets & dual vanities.

An impressively large & sheltered back patio is one highlight that makes this home stand out from the rest. It also serves as a gateway to your very own private & fenced backyard, complete with a large lawn & lush landscaping with Japanese maple trees.
