This lovely home has fantastic views from its formal living and dining areas. San Francisco skyscrapers, Treasure Island, and the Bay Bridge can easily be seen. The combined living-dining room, with a huge picture window at the front and back of the room and with glass doors at the back, is filled with natural light. A wood burning fireplace with a stone tile surround makes the room cozy on cold days. Out front, the lush green lawn will surprise you, it is actually artificial and needs little maintenance.
