

3002 Whisperwave Cir, Redwood Shores

The soaring ceiling of the light filled living room and the enticing glimpses of the lagoon behind the dining area makes the first impressions unforgettable. With four ample sized bedrooms you may choose to use the dining area as a sitting area and the family room as a large dining room (with fireplace).

The tranquil view of the lagoon from the family room is likely to make this room your favorite. Separated from the kitchen by a breakfast bar, with the dining room on its other side, you will be in a prime position. A small bay window alcove at the end of the kitchen provides a perfect place to enjoy a beverage while viewing the lagoon.
