Beautiful Two Bedroom End Unit Townhouse, Walk to Downtown

Located 1.3 miles from Plaza de Cesar Chavez, you can walk from this delightful townhouse to downtown San Jose cafes and attractions. Even when you want to go further, you can leave your car in your garage and walk 0.6 mi to the Diridon station and take light rail. If you simply want to enjoy a park, Cahill park is even closer.

The living room has a nearly two story high ceiling, a gleaming wood plank floor, an inviting fireplace with a gas log, and looks out through two tall windows, each with an additional window above it, to the fenced front yard. If you want to relax outdoors, a covered porch wraps around two sides, pretty much guaranteeing you can find the right amount of sunlight to enjoy.

The dining room room is located a half-story above the living room and looks out over the living room. The kitchen + family room is just on the other side of a wide passageway. The kitchen features gleaming white cabinets accented by black stone countertops. Overhead recessed lights and windows create a bright open space. The family room is completely open to the kitchen.
